

Name: _____

Class: _____

- 1) What is a Globe?
  - a) A large body of water.
  - b) a model of the earth or of the heavens
  - c) A body of fresh flowing water.

- 2) How are most globes formed?
  - a) From body of fresh flowing water
  - b) from a series of roughly triangular maps called gores, which are glued on the outside of a sphere.
  - c) a and b are correct.

- 3) Globes that represent the earth's surface are called
  - a) terrestrial globes
  - b) celestial globe
  - c) Crests and troughs

- 4) ----- is one on which the relative positions of the stars are mapped without distortion
  - a) celestial globe
  - b) terrestrial globes
  - c) Smaller channels.

- 5) Globes are often made to rotate around a rod that pierces them at the poles.
  - a) True
  - b) False

- 6) Give one advantage of globes.
  - a) To plan long sea and air routes
  - b) To prepare for forest hunt
  - c) To determine plants and species

- 7) Globes could also be used to trace earthquake shocks and tsunamis (tidal waves).
  - a) True
  - b) False

- 8) Give one disadvantage of a globe.
  - a) A globe cannot give an accurate information about a place
  - b) A globe cannot be used to determine the routes of satellites
  - c) None of the above

- 9) Globes are a kind of map.
  - a) True
  - b) False
  - c) Don't know

- 10) Who were those who first built the first globes?
  - a) Ancient Egypt
  - b) Ancient Greeks
  - c) United states of America

- 11) Who made the oldest existing terrestrial globe?
  - a) Martin Behaim
  - b) Isaac Newton
  - c) Christopher Columbus

- 12) The earliest known globe does not show the Americas.
  - a) True
  - b) False

- 13) What is the world's largest globe?
  - a) sphere
  - b) Unisphere
  - c) Map

- 14) The world's largest globe is found in which city?
  - a) Rome
  - b) New York
  - c) London

- 15) What is the name of the world's largest revolving globe, and where is it located?
  - a) Farnese Atlas in Naples Italy
  - b) Globe of Peace, in Pesaro, Italy
  - c) Victory Globe, Washington D.C. United states of America

Valid answers in green

- 1) What is a Globe?
  - a) A large body of water.
  - b) a model of the earth or of the heavens
  - c) A body of fresh flowing water.
- 2) How are most globes formed?
  - a) From body of fresh flowing water
  - b) from a series of roughly triangular maps called gores, which are glued on the outside of a sphere.
  - c) a and b are correct.
- 3) Globes that represent the earth's surface are called
  - a) terrestrial globes
  - b) celestial globe
  - c) Crests and troughs
- 4) ----- is one on which the relative positions of the stars are mapped without distortion
  - a) celestial globe
  - b) terrestrial globes
  - c) Smaller channels.
- 5) Globes are often made to rotate around a rod that pierces them at the poles.
  - a) True
  - b) False
- 6) Give one advantage of globes.
  - a) To plan long sea and air routes
  - b) To prepare for forest hunt
  - c) To determine plants and species
- 7) Globes could also be used to trace earthquake shocks and tsunamis (tidal waves).
  - a) True
  - b) False
- 8) Give one disadvantage of a globe.
  - a) A globe cannot give an accurate information about a place
  - b) A globe cannot be used to determine the routes of satellites
  - c) None of the above
- 9) Globes are a kind of map.
  - a) True
  - b) False
  - c) Don't know
- 10) Who were those who first built the first globes?
  - a) Ancient Egypt
  - b) Ancient Greeks
  - c) United states of America

- 11) Who made the oldest existing terrestrial globe?
  - a) Martin Behaim
  - b) Isaac Newton
  - c) Christopher Columbus
- 12) The earliest known globe does not show the Americas.
  - a) True
  - b) False
- 13) What is the world's largest globe?
  - a) sphere
  - b) Unisphere
  - c) Map
- 14) The world's largest globe is found in which city?
  - a) Rome
  - b) New York
  - c) London
- 15) What is the name of the world's largest revolving globe, and where is it located?
  - a) Farnese Atlas in Naples Italy
  - b) Globe of Peace, in Pesaro, Italy
  - c) Victory Globe, Washington D.C. United states of America